Women of the Wild Support Medical Center

Ruth Haak, leader of the WOW's (Women of the Wild) hiking club surprised Madison Valley Medical Center (MVMC) board chairman and MVMC Foundation member, Dottie Fossel, with a check from her group for the MVMC at a recent hike in the Jack Creek area. Haak said MVMC is one of her favorite charities and appreciates the quality care close to home.

Ruth Haak, Deb Townsend and Jan Harris formed the club in 1985. It presently has over 100 members from West Yellowstone and Idaho to Bozeman. Hikes are every Tuesday June through September.

"All of us at the Medical Center sincerely appreciate this donation, as well as every dollar donated." says Dottie Fossel, "although the center is open and operational, community support is still needed. Please consider a donation today."

For more information contact the MVMC Foundation office at (406) 682-6641.
